Group Leader Spotlight

Toni Bullock

5-time traveler & Group Leader
Gunnison, Colorado

OAT was founded upon the principle that travel needs to be about more than just sightseeing if it's going to change people's lives—which is why most OAT adventures feature a day of in-depth cultural exchange through Grand Circle Foundation's A Day in the Life program. By continuing to expand our worldview through exposure to other cultures, we are able to learn and grow—and the more we engage ourselves in the daily lives of the villages we visit, the more valuable our learning becomes.

Just ask Toni Bullock, a 5-time traveler and Group Leader who recently returned from our Safari Serengeti: Tanzania Lodge & Tented Safari adventure. She and her 19 companions didn't just want to visit a Maasai village on Day 6—they wanted to make a difference. "Each of us packed an extra bag," she says, "filled with children's clothing, sports equipment, and school supplies—so we arrived with 20 bags of much-needed items. We then presented the bags to the chief of the village."

"We're all retired Air Force friends, and most of us are grandparents," she continues. "Knowing that our group could give back—that we could really contribute—personalized the trip for us ... We can always turn to OAT to come up with things that are different, things we didn't get to do in our military years—lots of new experiences, fun experiences," she says. And thanks to Toni's group, the schoolchildren of that Maasai village may get to play their first soccer game, wear a new shirt to class, or write on a fresh pad of paper. What an incredible way to give back to the world in which we travel.

Dear Group Leader,

At this time of year, we pause to appreciate the bounty of the Earth—and the cornucopia of cultures that welcome our travelers around the globe. When you choose to lead a group with Grand Circle or OAT, you'll have plenty of reasons to be thankful, too.

First, you'll appreciate more choices than ever with new trips for 2013, including our Small Ship CruiseTour, The Rivas: France, Italy, & the Isles. From Florence to the treasured isles of Elba and Corsica, you'll revel in a Mediterranean atmosphere as you cruise your way to Cannes. See inside to learn more about our new trips, along with special savings when your group revels in the holiday spirit aboard a 2013 Holiday River Cruise.

What's more, your group can now enjoy the flexibility of personalizing a vacation that's right for you. Stay longer before or after your trip on your own, choose to make your own international flight arrangements directly with the airline, and more; see inside for more details. And as always, you can earn a free trip—or receive its cash equivalent—when you gather as few as 8 paying travelers to join you for a Grand Circle Land Vacation, or just 10 paying travelers to join you for an OAT Land/Small Ship Adventure or a Grand Circle Cruise Line Small Ship CruiseTour/River Cruise.

If you are interested in leading a group, or have questions about any of our trips, please call our Group Sales Account Representatives toll-free at 1-800-597-2452, Option 3 (for Grand Circle), or 1-800-353-6262 Option 3 (for OAT) today.

Warmly,

Adam Goddess

Meet Our Group Team Members

JoAnne Lynch,
Supervisor, Groups Traveler Support

I have been with OAT and Grand Circle since 2005. I joined the Group Sales Department in 2009, after four years as a Traveler Support Representative. I enjoy working with our Group Leaders because it gives me the opportunity to build relationships with them.

Nick Birse,
Groups Account Executive

Living in Spain for a semester in college was the best decision of my life. Because it was my first experience abroad, those few months opened my eyes to the world and the wonder of travel. Now I am always ready for the next adventure, setting a goal to see all seven continents.

Here's what a fellow Group Leader had to say ...

"My favorite parts of Eastern Europe to the Black Sea were discovering Transylvania, enjoying the beautiful scenery along the Iron Gates area of Bulgaria/Romania, and the spectacular nighttime cruise past the illuminated monuments and bridges of Budapest—all highlighted by appreciated daily doses of history and culture. It was a joy to once again share with friends the expertise and professionalism of Grand Circle's Program Directors. The ship and staff were perfection!"
